SOTO DE VIÑUELAS

8. PRACTICES AND MANDATORY STANDARDS DURING THE PROGRESS OF THE PROGRAM

The participant agrees to respect and abide by the course discipline and behavior rules, both during their stay in the facilities where the Summer Camp activities are developed, and outside of them, in particular, in relation to opening times of the Organisation, the obligation of getting involved in the activities and / or class attendance, meals, comply with schedules and rules of coexistence and behavior with teachers, classmates, and staff employed by the Organisation and King's College Soto in addition to the prohibition of consumption and possession of tobacco, alcohol and drugs, possession and / or use of weapons, explosives and any other conduct that is illegal.

Failure to comply with these requirements by the participant will entitle those responsible for the Organisation and King's College Soto to take the legal and disciplinary measures they deem appropriate, as well as inform the parents or guardians of the participant's misbehavior, leaving the participant out of any activity or excursion or even expelled from the whole Program. In these cases, the cost of early return to their home will be borne by the customer. The customer will not have the right to reimbursement of the fees.

The customer shall be liable for any and all costs, charges, expenses and liabilities that might arise in respect of damage to any of our property where the participant (acting alone or with others) has caused loss or damage to our property or the property of any other person (fair wear and tear excluded).

9. MEDICAL, PHARMACOLOGICAL AND/OR SURGICAL TREATMENT

The participant shall inform King's College Soto if they are undergoing any medical and/or pharmacological treatment during the period covered by the chosen program. It is understood that, at the time of beginning the program, the participant is in correct physical and mental health to participate in the program and that the medical information accompanying the program dossier is true and complete. Otherwise, the company King's College Soto is exempt from any type of liability arising from the falseness of the information.

In the event that a pupil of minor age is in a situation needing medical treatment and/or being admitted to hospital and/or in need of surgical intervention and it has not been possible to locate their parents or guardians, King's College Soto is hereby authorised to take the measures it deems most appropriate for the participant's health and legitimised by the defense of the vital interest of the minor.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

KING'S COLLEGE SCHOOL

SOTO DE VIÑUELAS

10. ELECTRONIC DEVICES AND OTHER PARTICIPANT'S PROPERTIES

King's College Soto is not responsible for the loss and/or deterioration of any electronic devices, jewellery and other valuables that the participant may bring to the chosen program.

If any of these valuables have been lost, King's College Soto may dispose of any such property if not claimed and collected by the participant within 7 days of the end of the Summer Camp.

11. DOCUMENTATION

All participants who contract the programs of King's College Soto must carry the necessary personal documentation (passport, VISA card, travel insurance, ID card, health insurance card, medical report or medication) in accordance with the laws of the country where the arranged program will occur. King's College Soto will not accept responsibility for any and all liability or expenses arising from failure to comply on the part of the participant, their parents or guardians.

12. INSURANCE

Participants enrolled in King's College Soto programmes have accident insurance included, which provides protection during their participation in the camp activities. It is important to note that, in addition to this insurance, participants and their families are advised to bring their own medical insurance. This medical insurance is essential to cover any eventuality that may arise during their stay, thus guaranteeing their wellbeing and adequate care in case of need.
